PASTOR'S PAGE... "WHOLLY DEVOTED TO YOU"

"CHRIST BE WITH ME, CHRIST WITHIN ME, CHRIST BEHIND ME, CHRIST BEFORE ME, CHRIST BESIDE ME, CHRIST TO WIN ME, CHRIST TO COMFORT AND RESTORE ME, CHRIST BENEATH ME, CHRIST ABOVE ME, CHRIST IN QUIET, CHRIST IN DANGER, CHRIST IN ALL HEARTS OF THOSE WHO LOVE ME, CHRIST IN MOUTH OF FRIEND AND STRANGER." — PATRICK OF IRELAND (389-461)

When I think of devotion, I think of love. I think of couples who devote themselves to one another. I think of songs like the Everly Brothers:

Darlin' you can count on me
Till the sun dries up the sea
Until then I'll always be devoted to you

I'll be yours through endless time
I'll adore your charms sublime
Guess by now you know that I'm devoted to you

I'll never hurt you, I'll never lie
I'll never be untrue
I'll never give you reason to cry
I'd be unhappy if you were blue

Through the years my love will grow
Like a river it will flow
It can't die because I'm so devoted to you

The definition of devotion is "1. love, loyalty, or enthusiasm for a person or activity; 2. Religious worship or observance." As Christians, we would like to believe we are devoted to Jesus Christ. But I think many distractions draw us away from our God.

To what or whom are you devoted? Where is your devotion focused? Your spouse? Your children? Your home? Your pet? Your job? Your popularity? Your church? Your volunteerism? Your hobby? Your entertainment? Your sports team? Your future? Your past?

Let me offer five marks of believers who are devoted to Jesus Christ. First, devoted believers are devoted to Scripture. They hunger to know the mind and will of God. They want to know the life and words of Jesus. They long to experience the touch of the Holy Spirit. How can they know these things better? By reading the inspired word of God. Like a sports fan who reads all the stories about their teams and knows all the statistics, a devoted believer knows the Bible.

Secondly, devoted believers are devoted to prayer. You might notice their knees are a little raw from kneeling at bedside, praying to God. They offer prayers of adoration for who God is and thanksgiving for what God has done and is doing. They confess their shortcomings and ask for God to cleanse and heal them. They offer prayers of petition, laying their worries and concerns at the feet of Jesus and asking Him to carry their burdens and the burdens of their loved ones. And at times, they sit in silence, waiting for God to speak to them in a still, small voice. Like a devoted lover who simply wants to spend time with the object of their devotion, a devoted believer spends time in prayer with God.

Third, devoted believers are devoted to living more like Christ. Reading about God and spending time in prayer are not enough. They desire to grow in faith. Scripture and prayer should transform us into the likeness of our Lord. Like a devoted spouse begins to act, look and think like their partner, so a believer should begin to begin to become more and more like Jesus.

Fourth, devoted believers are devoted to sharing Jesus Christ with others. As a believer's relationship with Christ grows and blossoms, so their enthusiasm for Him grows. They want to tell others about who Jesus is and how He is changing their lives in new, unexpected, amazingly positive ways. Like the devoted hobbyist becomes excited to share about their collection or activity or whatever, a devoted believer should be brimming with excitement to share their relationship with Jesus to others.

Fifth, devoted believers are devoted to joyful generosity. As a believer grows in the knowledge and grace of God and His overwhelming love and generosity in their lives, it is a natural byproduct to become more generous. They recognize that everything is a gift from God. And they recognize that nothing of this earth will last. What will last are the eternal souls of those around us. Like the devoted character in the movie "Pay It Forward," a devoted believer recognizes the benefits of joyful generosity.

We are coming into the summer months. I love these months because life slows down. Summers are a time for me to read and reflect. I take the opportunity to refocus and refine my direction.

I long to be devoted to Jesus Christ. And so I commit myself to be devoted to Scripture, to prayer, to living more like Jesus, to sharing my faith, and to joyful generosity. I hope you will join me in devotion to our Lord. May Jesus Christ be the object of our devotion today, tomorrow, and always.

May God richly bless us, even as He blesses others through us!

In His Love & Service,

Lance

JULY BIRTHDAYS

On July 4, 1776, we claimed our independence from Britain and Democracy was born. Every day thousands leave their homeland to come to the "land of the free and the home of the brave" so they can begin their American Dream.

The United States is truly a diverse nation made up of dynamic people. Each year on July 4, Americans celebrate that freedom and independence with barbecues, picnics, and family gatherings. Through the Internet we are learning about and communicating with people of different nations, with different languages and different races throughout the world. Bringing the world closer with understanding and knowledge can only benefit all nations.

We invite all nations to celebrate with Americans this Fourth of July. HAPPY BIRTHDAY, AMERICA!

THIS LAND WE LOVE.....by Roger Robicheau

How beautiful this land we love
We cherish all good people of
With pride we call this home our own
Oh how our seed of freedoms grown
American is what we are
Our time has nurtured us so far
For truth and justice we do strive
Our laws are meant to not deprive
We know we're not the perfect place
As we are of the human race
In God we trust along our way
His goodness near, both night and day
So please do stop and pray awhile
Ask help in facing each new mile
And now I'll end with words so clear
Concerning freedom we hold dear
Let Grateful Thought - Well Deep Inside

SUPPER CLUB NEWS — Spring 2011

This Spring, over 50 members of our church family were able to participate in our 1st Supper Club event! It was a great opportunity for so many to experience the joy of fellowship over a meal in another's home. This event also enabled our church's continued growth in the bridging of cultural differences, and in the discovering of the unity we share as fellow pilgrims in the journey of faith in Christ.

Here are a few of the comments from those who were able to participate in this special event:

"We had the opportunity to get to know people we have seen every Sunday for many years, and yet knew absolutely nothing about. It was great to see that we could sit at the table sharing very openly with others from another culture, and really enjoy ourselves!"

"I loved listening to the different stories of our faith journey, and realizing how we all have similar struggles in learning to allow Christ Lordship over our lives."

"We loved sitting around the dining room table and telling about our backgrounds. Our host told us that we were the first non-Hispanic people that he had ever eaten a meal with. They were very warm and welcoming to us."

"The entire evening was fantastic! We had delicious homemade food, laughed, shared faith, and church stories, even how the married couples met."

"Our guests brought their little grandson, who was SO ADORABLE! He thoroughly enjoyed exploring our backyard and was so vivacious that he broke any communication barriers that would have otherwise existed."

So, if you did not get a chance to participate this time, or if you would like to be able to host or visit another families home, we will be planning our next Supper Club event in the early fall. This is just the beginning of all the God has in store for us as we continue to learn how to be His family together!

KEEPING UP ON WHAT IS HAPPENING AT FPCSA!

A VISIT TO THE LORD'S CLINIC

I went to the Lord's Clinic to have my routine check-up and He confirmed I was ill.

When Jesus took my blood pressure, He saw I was low in tenderness.

When He read my temperature, the thermometer registered 40° of anxiety.

He ran an electrocardiogram and found that I needed several "love bypasses" since my arteries were blocked with loneliness and could not provide for an empty heart.

I went to orthopedics, because I could not walk by my brother's side and I could not hug my friends, since I had fractured myself when tripping with envy.

He also found I was short-sighted, since I could not see beyond the shortcomings of my brothers & sisters.

When I complained about deafness, the diagnostic was that I had stopped listening to Jesus' voice talking to me on a daily basis.

For all of that, Jesus gave me a free consultation thanks to his mercifulness, so my pledge is to, once I leave this clinic, only take the natural remedies He prescribed through his words of truth:

Every morning, take a full glass of gratitude. When getting to work, take one spoon of peace.

Every hour, take one pill of patience, one cup of brotherhood and one glass of humility.

When getting home, take one dose of love.

When getting into bed, Take two caplets of clear conscience.

Do not give in into sadness or desperation for what you are going through today. God knows how you feel.....

God knows exactly and with perfection what is being allowed to happen to you in your life at this precise moment.

God's purpose for you is simply perfect. He wants to show you things that only you can understand by living what you are living, and by being in the place you are now.

MAY GOD GIVE YOU. . .

For every storm, a rainbow, For every tear, a smile, For every care, a promise, And a blessing in each trail. For every problem like sends, A faithful friend to share, for every sigh, a sweet song, And an answer for each prayer.

(And you thought there was no good health care available, course it depends on where you go to get it!!!)

Ten Commandments of Life

(They are like the Ten Commandments to follow in life all the time.)

- 1] Prayer is not a "spare wheel" that you pull out when in trouble; it is a "steering wheel" that directs us in the right path throughout life.
- 2] Do you know why a car's WINDSHIELD is so large & the rear view mirror is so small? Because our PAST is not as important as our FUTURE. So, look ahead and move on.
- 3] Friendship is like a BOOK. It takes years to write but just few seconds to burn.
- 4] All things in life are temporary. If going well enjoy it, they will not last forever. If going wrong don't worry, they can't last long either.
- 5] Old friends are like Gold! New friends are Diamonds! If you get a Diamond, don't forget the Gold! Because to hold a Diamond, you always need a base of Gold!

- 6] Often when we lose hope and think this is the end, GOD smiles from above and says, "Relax, my child, it's just a bend, not the end!"
- 7] When GOD solves your problems, you have faith in HIS abilities; when GOD doesn't solve your problems HE has faith in your abilities.
- 8] A blind person asked St. Anthony: "Can there be anything worse than losing eye sight?" He replied: "Yes, losing your vision."
- 9] When you pray for others, God listens to you and blesses them; and, when you are safe and happy, remember that someone has prayed for you.
- 10] WORRYING does not take away tomorrow's TROUBLES; it takes away today's PEACE.

"Everything that can be counted does not necessarily count; everything that counts cannot necessarily be counted." . . . . Albert Einstein

Fun & Nonsense

MY ANCHOR IS JESUS!

THE MOM TEST

I was out walking with my 4 year old daughter. She picked up something off the ground and started to put it in her mouth. I took the item away from her and I asked her not to do that. "Why?" my daughter asked. "Because it's been on the ground, you don't know where it's been, it's dirty, and probably has germs," I replied.

At this point, my daughter looked at me with total admiration and asked, "Momma, how do you know all this stuff. You are so smart." I was thinking quickly, "All moms know this stuff. It's on the Mom Test. You have to know it, or they don't let you be a Mom."

We walked along in silence for 2 or 3 minutes, but she was evidently pondering this new information. "Oh...I get it!" she beamed, "So if you don't pass the test you have to be the dad."

"Exactly," I replied back with a big smile on my face. (Editor's note: Apologies to all you Dads, story was too cute to skip. I couldn't resist)

THE INTERVIEW WITH GOD

I dreamed I had an interview with God. "So you would like to interview me?" God asked. "If you have the time" I said. God smiled. "My time is eternity." "What questions do you have in mind for me?"

"What surprises you most about humankind?" God answered...

"That they get bored with childhood, they rush to grow up, and then long to be children again."
"That they lose their health to make money... and then lose their money to restore their health."

"That by thinking anxiously about the future, they forget the present, such that they live in neither the present nor the future."

"That they live as if they will never die, and die as though they had never lived."

God's hand took mine and we were silent for a while. And then I asked...

"As a parent, what are some of life's lessons you want your children to learn?"

"To learn they cannot make anyone love them. All they can do is let themselves be loved."

"To learn that it is not good to compare themselves to others."

"To learn to forgive by practicing forgiveness."

"To learn that it only takes a few seconds to open profound wounds in those they love, and it can take many years to heal them."

"To learn that a rich person is not one who has the most, but is one who needs the least."

"To learn that there are people who love them dearly, but simply have not yet learned how to express or show their feelings."

"To learn that two people can look at the same thing and see it differently."

"To learn that it is not enough that they forgive one another, but they must also forgive themselves."

"Thank you for your time," I said humbly.

"Is there anything else you would like your children to know?"

God smiled and said, "Just know that I am here... always."
